

Calling all budding film-makers,
animators, and game-makers...

RIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Competition for school students

SafeWork SA and the Equal Opportunity Commission want to know what you think about rights and responsibilities at work, at school or in the community.

Produce an original clip (up to 2.5 minutes long) or online game about occupational health, safety and welfare, discrimination or harassment, and its impact on young people, and you could win:

1st prize - $1000 voucher PLUS a behind-the-scenes tour of SA Film Corp & Cyan Films, People's Republic of Animation or Holopoint Interactive

2nd prize - $750 voucher for student/group

3rd prize - $500 voucher for student/group

Get your entry in by Friday 9 September 2011

Visit our websites for entry forms, conditions, and previous entries:

www.passporttosafety.com/australia

www.safework.sa.gov.au/youth

www.eo4schools.net.au

For further information, contact:

Meegan Brotherton

Phone: 8303 0480

Email: meegan.brotherton@sa.gov.au

passport to safety™
Australia

Government of South Australia

